It is reported that there are two cases of scarlet fever in town.

The editor of the Journal and his family will return home from Louisiana this week.

The docket for this Judicial Circuit was taken up by the Supreme Court last Monday.

Our County Trustee informs us that at least forty per cent. of the taxes for 1882 are delinquent.

A revenue spotter is after the Federal law violators in this county. Two arrests in the 9th district last week.

Rev. W. W. Pinson and lady, of Tracy City, who have been visiting here several days, returned home yesterday.

We learn that another Concert will be given at the Mary Sharp College in a few weeks. This time by the little folk.

Gov. Bate's message was sent in to the Legislature last Thursday. It is an able document, but too lengthy for our columns.

James M. Quarles, has tendered his resignation as Judge of the Criminal Court of Davidson and Rutherford counties.

We prepared a number of small locals for this issue, but had to leave them out to make room for advertisements and other matter.

Mr. W. W. Gordon, of Lynchburg, was in town last Monday to make arrangements to enter his little son as a pupil at Mary Sharp College.

We see from a list of appointments published in the Nashville American that Bishop Quintard will visit Trinity Church at this place on the 16th.

Esq. Forbes has located in Nashville, and his office is vacant. We understand that C. Williams, Esq., is a candidate for the position.

Stated meeting of Mountain Council, American Legion of Honor, to-morrow night, Feb. 15th. The members will please meet promptly.

Attorney-General Benj. J. Lea, in a letter to the State Comptroller, tells him to instruct tax-collectors not to receive the "new issue" in payment of taxes upon property and privileges.

Postmaster Ayers informs us that a ruling of the Postoffice Department will not permit other business to be conducted in the post-office building. Therefore he will discontinue his confectionery and stationery store.

Messrs. Mather, Rueh & Fraker, of Belvidere, have purchased, recently, at a cost of $400, a Dedrick Hay Press, which bales from eight to ten tons per day. It makes the bales 100 pounds each and solid as a block.

In speaking of drummers last week, our typists made us say "commercial agents," when we intended to say "commercial agents." But there is no harm done, as we are sure that a great many drummers think themselves angels.

MASOXC.—Stated meeting of Cumberland Lodge No. 158, next Saturday night, February 17th, 1883. It is earnestly requested that there be a full attendance. By order of the W. M. H. H. DULIN, Sec'y.

We learn that Maxwell, on the Win & Ala. Railroad, is being improved considerably. Mr. Wm. H. Noah is building a neat residence, Dr. J. P. Carlton has about completed a commodious house, and there is a movement on foot to build a school-house there soon.

PRESENT LANGUAGE.—At the urgent request of several, Prof. A. Jourdan will open a new French class at the residence of Mr. J. C. Hopkins (formerly Weber House) on the 1st of March, 1883. He will be assisted by Messrs. Henry Baugh and J. M. Hopkins, former pupils, who speak the language fluently. Terms liberal. Apply soon.

It would improve the appearance of our Square and Courthouse considerably if the old fence around the Courthouse was torn away and a neat iron railing put in its place. Wonder if the County Court could not be prevailed upon to make an appropriation for that purpose?

Hunt's Station has one of the best and most complete Flour Mills in this section of the country. We allude to "Stonewall Mills," an advertisement of which appears in this issue. Messrs. S. W. Brown & Son, proprietors, have invested about $13,000 in fixing up these mills, and being practical men, and full of vim, we feel sure they will reap a handsome reward for their investment.

Literary Society.

The Winchester Literary Society will meet at Prof. Barrett's, on invitation, to-night. The following is the program for the occasion:

Music.—Mrs. Robertson. Essay.—Mr. Simmons. Music.—Miss Mansfield and Prof. Urmoechen. Essay.—Prof. Bliss. Music.—Mrs. Gaines. Essay.—Mr. Francis. Music.—Miss Mansfield and Prof. Urmoechen. Geography Class. Spelling Bee.

The Argonauts.

The Argonaut Society of Mary Sharp College gave an annual entertainment on last Friday night. The weather was exceedingly unfavorable, and we were simply surprised when we saw the hall completely filled with an appreciative audience.

This is an organization whose membership is confined exclusively to the Senior class. Its meetings, which are semi-monthly, are not public, and its program of work, though of a literary character, we are told, is strictly a secret of the society. In all of its public exercises, this air of mystery seems to cling to it; and to one not familiar with the Greek myth in which is described the Argonautic expedition, some of the finest features of the entertainment on last Friday evening were doubtless unnoticed. We find, upon enquiry, that the young ladies, in preparing for a public exhibition, select some place on the voyage as a suitable one to represent to the audience. In the one of Friday evening they were at the end of the outward voyage, the place where was concealed the object of their search, i. e., the Golden Fleece in the "grove of Mars." They were represented as having embarked from the ship "Argo," which, beneath the master touch of Prof. Gardner, appeared seemingly a few feet from the shore, and the stage was arranged to represent the "grove of Mars." The trees placed upon the stage, the painted stretch of blue waters beyond, upon which was moored the good old ship "Argo," made a picture beautiful to look at, and so complete a delusion that we were once or twice on the point of shouting out a word of caution to the young ladies lest they should fall off the bank into the waves.

The Argonauts, in expression of their gratitude for having found the Golden Fleece, entered the grove with the insignia of worship, and, after walking around the altar, reverently knelt, and as music of sweetest strains softly swept through the forest the officiating priest lighted the many-colored fires upon the altar, forming a scene so beautiful and weird that we were impressed as we never were before. Again the music grew louder, and to its lively measures the Argonauts marched and counter-marched to their places, and the American part of the entertainment began. The program was certainly one of the best ever presented to a Winchester audience, and the young ladies acquitted themselves handsomely—in fact, surpassed our most sanguine expectations—and we would criticize only to praise. To say more in their behalf would but feebly express the appreciation, we dare say, of the entire audience.

The following was the programme of exercises:

Salutatory—Mary Reed.
Vocal Duets—(Cheerfulness)—Bettie Rucker and Lennie Johnston.
Select Reading—(An order for a picture)—Annie McGrew.
Vocal Solo—(Secret Love)—Lula Wilkins.
Essay—(Strife before Victory)—Susie Waller.

Vocal Solo—(True Hearts)—Annie McGrew.
Essay—(The Song of the Sirens)—Joella Hester.
Piano Duets—(Qui Vive)—Bettie Rucker and Effie Greer.
Vocal Solo—(Venetian Boat Song)—Loulie Jones.
Select Reading—(The Weaver)—Bettie Rucker.
Recitation—(A discourse to prove the antiquity of the English tongue, showing from various instances that the Greek language was derived from the English)—Bertha Roddenberry.
Piano Solo—(Carnival De Venice)—Nannie Henderson.
Select Reading—(There's but one pair of stockings to mend)—Lennie Johnston.
Piano Duets—(Neck and Neck)—Nannie Henderson and Lennie Johnston.
Long Book—Ida Dulin.
Class Song.

Decherd Items.

About a week ago, or perhaps a little longer, a young man by the name of Riddle, who hailed from the Rock Creek district, came to Decherd and victimized one of our good citizens (Mr. B. F. Ragsdale) to the tune of about fifty or sixty dollars. He was driving a splendid young mare to a spring-wagon, which he represented as being his own property, and wanted to sell. He soon struck a bargain with Mr. Ragsdale, who gave him a Winchester rifle, a gold silver watch and ten dollars in money for the "lay out." The young man strapped the gun to his back, put the money and watch in his pocket, and left on the first train. Mr. Ragsdale was a little elated over his good bargain, but the fates were against him. In about two days afterward a man named Edwards, who lived in the neighborhood of Tullahoma, came to Decherd in search of the property mentioned, and politely relieved Mr. Ragsdale of it. He had loaned the outfit to young Riddle. Mr. Ragsdale has made considerable effort to catch up with the young man, but without success. It is supposed he is in Texas by this time. He is a son of Mr. R. Riddle, de'd, and, it is said, is rather non compos mentis. Anyhow he played a shrewd game.

Mrs. Witt, wife of Mr. John Witt and sister to Mr. Geo. C. Bass, our druggist, died yesterday at her residence in the 10th district, after great suffering. She was afflicted with tumor, and a surgical operation became necessary. Dr. Briggs, of Nashville, was sent for, and, in company with Drs. Sloan, Murrell, Cherry and Thompson, repaired to her residence last Saturday, when the operation was performed. She seemed to be doing very well until late Saturday night, when she began to fail, and 15 minutes past 12 o'clock Sunday she died. She leaves a husband and child, a fond mother and kind brothers and sisters to mourn her loss.

Decherd, Tenn., Feb. 12th.

Belvidere Notes.

I notice in both the Northern and Southern press that the attention of not only our own people North, but also foreigners, are turning their eyes and thoughts southward, with a view of locating there, more than perhaps any period for many years; and, comparing our State with the new western country, where men go to earn and make money, it seems to me that there is more to gain here than there. To illustrate this, I call to mind an instance in our own neighborhood. Seven years ago Mr. Jacob Fraker came here and bought an old farm, on which others had despaired of making a living, worth perhaps seven or eight dollars per acre. In that time he has, from the proceeds of his own labor and the products of his farm, placed it under good fence, good barns and dwelling house, orchards and vineyards, and everything for the comfort of its owner, and brought the soil up to a condition that enables him to sell a surplus of grain, hay and other crops, to the value of two thousand dollars per annum, and the value of the land to forty dollars per acre. I will say, though, that there are few such farmers in this State or any other. He succeeds where many others fail, because he does everything right and at the right time. I never knew him to make a mistake in managing his farm. He has sold his farm to Mr. Lichty, and is going back to his other farms in Ohio. We are sorry to lose him, as his example is worth much to any community of farmers.

This shows what can be done here, and that there is no valid reason why men cannot succeed here as well as anywhere. It is easier to build up these old places than to go to a new country and hew out homes on the borders of civilization. There every surplus dollar that is made for the first twenty-five years has to go to build roads, bridges, school-houses, court-houses, railroads, churches, and everything that pertains to the structure of society; while here, all these things are ready for use—the sacrifice for these things having already been made by a former generation.

Those looking westward or southward had better study this question. We know what we are saying. We have been there.

Our Cash Argument
REWARDED!

Under our cash system we have, in three months, been able to secure a larger store-house and employ extra force in order to meet the demands of our trade.

We don't claim to sell all the goods that are sold here, but we still say we will make your friends treat you right. Even an enemy to your friend if he makes your friend treat you right. How long will it be before your friend he who treats you right without making? Did you buy for $14 fourteen pounds of choice sugar, ten pounds of choice coffee, or 44 full weight domestic at 60c, or best prints at 60c, before we put them down? Suppose you permit Harry to go to your smoke-house and take one of your most choice hams every week—how long will it be before you would have to sell the remainder at double its value to make good your loss? This suits our case exactly. Harry comes every day—there are many Harrys. Suppose we load him down (not up) with 10 pound coffee and 14 pound sugar for $1. For $17 00, but for how long? No, sir, we can't stand it, but pass him over to our neighbors who take chances on all alike with only one consolation—that is, if Harry don't pay, Tom and Dick will.

We don't pretend to say all who ask for credit will not pay. We admit that Tom and Dick will pay, and that Harry will not. We are always busy, and to say we can't keep Harry from Tom and Dick. He is as good-looking, and more glib on the tongue.

Now to the point: Gentlemen, two-thirds of you furnish the other one-third all their luxuries. This loss don't fall on Smith, Leachman, or Mr. —, but the people foot the whole bill.

We keep a full line of Clothing, Gent's Furnishing Goods, &c., also a general stock of merchandise, and pay the highest market price for barter of all kinds.

THE WINCHESTER NORMAL

OFFERS SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES IN English, Latin and German,
Mathematics, History and Literature,
Natural Science, Music and Art,
Philosophy, Book-keeping,
Primary Studies, Penmanship,
Theory and Practice of Teaching.

THE FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION
Begins August 29, (Tuesday) 1882. The outlook for the future is full of promise. The enrollment was 547 the past year. The growth from the first has been steady and healthy, and today the Normal is the largest school of its age in Tennessee.

A FULL FACULTY
Of earnest, experienced, and successful teachers are employed. Besides the seven regular teachers, several assistants, full of vigor and enthusiasm, render valuable help.

Dr. Joseph Baldwin, author of School Management, says of the President, J. W. Terrill: "As a teacher and manager, he has few equals. His school at Huntsville impressed me as the best I had ever visited."

Dr. W. R. Rothwell, of William Jewell College, Mo., says: "Few men of his age in Missouri, or the West, have won and sustained a higher reputation as a successful, practical teacher and College President than Mr. Terrill."

Prof. W. F. Nason, President of North Missouri Normal, says: "He is an educator of the very first rank; that as a presiding officer and teacher he has very few equals."

Prof. R. A. Clark is a native of Tennessee and a Christian gentleman of the highest type. He has studied and taught for twelve years in the town of Winchester, and his work and success in the case-room show him today one of the most accomplished teachers in Tennessee. While he is a self-made man and teacher, and no graduate, yet none of our college-bred teachers will dare question his ability and skill in computing, comparing results, with him. Free from the restraints of the old colleges he has readily accepted natural, or Normal, methods.

Miss Mattie Eadill graduated in Mary Sharp College in 1875, and that institution honored her with a position as teacher, giving to her work and scholarship much praise. Since then she has spent two years in the Normal preparing herself for the grand work of teaching. She is a lady of fine ability, and an indefatigable student and worker. Her fine social qualities, her long training in Theory and Art of teaching, her scholarship, and her experience in actual work of the school-room, all combine to make her a very superior teacher. Her fitness, both natural and acquired, will be admitted by those who witness her work.

Mrs. Corie Terrill, Principal of Preparatory Department, has had an experience of twelve years in teaching primary branches and little children. Only after years of arduous study and training did she ever upon this school. Since 1874 she has taught in Winchester, and it will be admitted by all that she has lifted Primary Teaching to a higher plane of excellence, thus conferring lasting benefits on our youth and schools. In Primary Work she is without a peer, not only in Winchester, but, we believe, in this portion of the State.

Miss Bessie Beauchamp, of Texas, takes the place vacated by Prof. Wm. McIlhenny. She has several years' experience as a teacher. We assure our patrons and students that no mistake has been made in her selection. She was for years a student of President Terrill in his Normal.

Miss Lillie Blodgett has taught the Music the past two years, and her success has warranted the Faculty in purchasing new instruments throughout for her work in future. In this Department she will compare favorably with teachers of other schools.

Miss Marie French takes charge of an Art School in the Normal. This is a new and valuable feature to which we call special attention. She is well qualified, and comes to make permanent and successful this Department of the school.

Miss Maud Terrill, well known to the students and friends of the Normal, will teach half her term in the various Departments, as may be needed.

Business Change!

From and After January 1st, 1883, we will do a Cash and Barter Business.

WHY? 1st. To meet cash competition. 2d. To know how to price goods. Is it possible for us to know how to price goods which we do not know when we will get the money? 3d. To do business satisfactorily; to treat all alike. Last, but not least, to be able to pay for what we purchase. It is best for all. Happy thought! I owe no man. I must cash and prompt dealers pay for losses sustained by selling goods to those that do not pay their debts? Is it right?

I thank my friends for past favors, and hope in the future to be able to offer such inducements as will justify a continuance of their patronage.

We will endeavor to keep a
